SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Sackett-Albright.

A pretty wedding of interest to many friends was solemnized at the Central Baptist church, Memphis, Tuesday evening, when Miss Mary Louise Sackett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John DeWitt Sackett, became the bride of Mr. Felton Albright, the Rev. Ben Cox officiating in the presence of friends and relatives. For the occasion the edifice was beautifully decorated in palms, ferns and pink and white sweet peas. The altar was banked in the ferns and delicately tinted blossoms and palms formed a background for the lovely gowns worn by the ladies of the bridal party. Proceeding the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. Baxter Ware rendered a program of specially selected wedding music and Mr. C. O. Finnie rendered several vocal numbers. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her bridal robes of white duchesse satin, veiled in tulle and chastely her court train of tulle fell over her shoulders, where it was caught up by a flower girl, carrying a bouquet of pink roses and valley lilies. Mrs. J. A. Lamb served as matron of honor, wearing a white lace robe over white gown and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Miss Lucy Sharpe, maid of honor, and of the bridesmaids, Kate Wright and Laura Thomas, as of chattering, wore similar models of pink tulle and tulle and carried arm bouquets of pink sweet peas and valley lilies. Little Miss Elizabeth Semmes and Evelyn West, wearing dainty frocks of white organdie and lace over pink served as flower girls, carrying baskets of rose petals, which they scattered before the bride. Master J. A. Lamb, wearing a suit of white, served as ring bearer. Mr. H. P. Simmons attended the groom as best man and Messrs. Chas. Hunt, Vernon Watson, Edward Wagner and Oran Sackett, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen. Following the ceremony, an informal reception was tendered to the members of the bridal party in the home of the bride's parents on Estival Place. The rooms thrown open for the occasion were effectively decorated in sweet peas and greenery. The chandeliers were answered in asparagus ferns and sweet peas, caught with filmy bows of pink tulle, and wicker baskets of beautiful blossoms were arranged on the tables and mantels. The bride's table was draped in a handsome lace cloth in the center of which was a large white wedding cake, around which lighted candles burned in silver candelabra. The guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Sackett, the latter wearing white crepe de chine and lace with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas, and Mrs. F. M. Stanley, groomed in gray tulle and chiffon, trimmed with cut steel ornaments and wearing a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Albright, the latter wearing a tailored suit of gray gabardine with a white Milan hat, with gray boots and accessories in harmony, left for a southern bridal trip after which they will be at home to their friends at 894 Estival Place. The groom is the son of Mr. G. N. Albright of Stanton, one of the leading citizens of Haywood county.

Birthday Party.

Bond Morton, the attractive daughter of Mrs. Poine, celebrated her birthday, Monday, with a party at her home. Her father, Judge Bond, and her mother, Mrs. Bond, were present. The party was given by Mrs. Bond, who was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Hutchinson and Mrs. Albert Martin took part in the program. A social hour followed, the guests serving a delicious ice course. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Marie Gray and Miss Helen Livingston on the first Saturday in July.

Livingston Chapter, U. D. C.

Mrs. Joe Dickinson entertained Livingston Chapter, U. D. C., on Saturday afternoon. The subject of the afternoon's program was "Wonders of History Righted," and Miss Mamie Gray, Mrs. J. C. Hutchinson and Mrs. Albert Martin took part in the program. A social hour followed, the guests serving a delicious ice course. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Marie Gray and Miss Helen Livingston on the first Saturday in July.

Maiden-Tugwell Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Edna Gertrude Tugwell and Mr. Hicks Carr Maiden of Abingdon, Va., took place at 7 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John A. Hardin, 4020 Swiss avenue. The ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. J. Johnson, pastor of Grace Methodist church, under a large wedding bell of daisies suspended in the center of the living room. The home was decorated with palms, daisies and cathedral candles. Before the entrance of the bride party the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus was sung by fifteen young ladies, intimate friends of the bride. Miss Ruby Lawrence played Mendelssohn's wedding march for the processional. The ribbon bearers were little Miss Margaret Tugwell and Master John Hardin. Just preceding the bride was the flower girl, Edna Gertrude Hardin, the 3-year-old niece and namesake of the bride, bearing a basket of pink Killarney rose buds. The bride wore a dress of white tulle and Georgette crepe with valley lilies and a white bridal poke bonnet trimmed with valley lilies. She carried a bouquet of white bride roses and sweet peas. Misses Hazel Richardson and Mary Tugwell, nieces of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Misses Mary Brown, Mary Capers and Maude McLaughlin, nieces of the bride, were bridesmaids. The bride and groom were attended by a party which will include Houston, Galveston, Atlanta, Abingdon, Washington and New York. The bride's traveling costume was a tailored suit of blue cloth, a tailored sailor hat and accessories of gray. The out of town guests were Mrs. J. A. Richardson and daughter, Hazel, of Seymour; R. B. Tugwell and daughter, Mary, of Brownsville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tugwell and daughter, Margaret, and Nell Ray of Amarillo; Mrs. Presley of Morrilton, Ark.; and the Rev. Marvin Maiden of Abingdon, Va. —Dallas News.

Wednesday Morning Musical.

The Wednesday Morning Musical held its last meeting of the club year with Mrs. William Kinney on May 31. As this was the time for the annual election of officers no program was given. The following officers were re-elected: Mrs. Wm. Kinney, president; Mrs. R. M. Chambliss, vice president; Mrs. James Bond, secretary and treasurer. The Wednesday Morning Musical has become a well organized and enthusiastic club. Too much cannot be said of Mrs. Kinney's untiring efforts and interest in behalf of the club and it was a great pleasure to the club that she accepted her unanimous reelection. Mrs. J. W. E. Moore, the Club's representative to the Tennessee Federation of Woman's Clubs held at Chattanooga, gave a most interesting account of the Federation. The study for the coming year has not been determined upon but will be left to the judgment of the program committee, which will be appointed by the president. The club hopes in the next year to do quite a number of things that will be worth while—among them will be a choral recital given by the Wednesday Morning Musical, also an artist concert to be given by an artist of note. The club has adopted for its motto one of the beautiful sayings of Beethoven, "The barriers are not erected that can any to aspiring talent and industry, thus far and no farther."

David Craig Chapter, D. A. R.

David Craig Chapter, D. A. R., held its May meeting with Mrs. W. T. Davis. This being the time for the annual election of officers, the afternoon was devoted to that business. The following officers were elected: Mrs. R. M. Kinney, president; Mrs. R. M. Kinney, vice president; Mrs. J. C. Hutchinson, secretary and treasurer. The chapter has become a well organized and enthusiastic club. Too much cannot be said of Mrs. Kinney's untiring efforts and interest in behalf of the club and it was a great pleasure to the club that she accepted her unanimous reelection. Mrs. J. W. E. Moore, the Club's representative to the Tennessee Federation of Woman's Clubs held at Chattanooga, gave a most interesting account of the Federation. ME AN' SPOT

"I got a pup an' his name's Spot, And my name it's just Jim; He's 'bout the only thing I got—Th' rest's inside o' him! He et up pa's boots, an' pa he said 'Thet pup must go!'—so then He did; but fore we went to bed, Th' pup come home again."

"One time he ketches a chicken, it Belonged next door to us, An' Mis' Smith like to had a fit—She made a awful fuss. Pa said to her, 'Well, well, now you Can't hardly blame a pup! It seems to me the thing to do Is: shut your chickens up.'"

"An' then pa went an' found a hen. That's ours, an' it wuz dead An' kinder rumpled up, so then Pa he got mad an' said, 'Thet pup must go! I tell you what, You'd better understand, I bet Spot never done it, but He like to got me tanned.'"

"Spot comes in when it rains an' he Smells doggy, like they do; He's allus rubbin' up on me 'Till I smell doggy, too. He gits beneath the stove as slick, An' tries to dry his hair; But ever body hollers quick 'Phew, chase him out o' there!'"

"My folks say they don't like Spot, I kind o' guess it's so; Cause when he's home, as like as not, They keep 'im on the go. But he don't care, cause he knows me An' he's my name's Jim. I like his awful lots—you see, We're allus an' an' him!" —Gus, A. Jones in Table Talk.

DR. WM. J. MAHONEY MANAGING CHAUTAUQUA.

Dr. Wm. J. Mahoney of Jefferson City, Tenn., is in charge of the Alkanbest Chautauqua here this week. Dr. Mahoney is a man of splendid attainments and deep research who has achieved a high position in the educational and medical world, and has also made for himself an enviable reputation as a public orator. He is at present pastor of the Jefferson City Baptist church. Dr. Mahoney is the author of "Bible Studies for Christian Workers" and in placing these studies before the public has rendered valuable service to pastors, teachers and personal workers. The studies form a real guide to efficiency in Christian service and have been pronounced "masterpieces of scriptural arrangement and teaching."

PIANO RECITAL OF MISS KING'S CLASS.

Before a decidedly representative audience which filled to overflowing the vast auditorium of the Methodist church the piano class of Miss Lily Kate King gave a most artistic and carefully arranged musical program. The auditorium was abloom with quantities of ferns and roses beautifully arranged about the altar railing. Two pianos were in place and used in five numbers. The second number on the program was "Daffodil Waltz" given by the baby musical genius of the city, little Mary Jane Neblett, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Neblett. Each number received hearty applause. Miss King, the piano director in the high school faculty, closes her first year work here this week, but will return to resume her class work in September. She is a pianist endowed with much natural ability to which she adds intelligent and serious work. And the large circle of friends who has gathered here are rejoicing that she'll be in charge of the piano class again for the next school term—Sweetwater (Tex.) Reporter.

Willie—I met our new minister this morning, mamma, and he asked me if I ever played marbles on Sunday. Mamma—What did you say? Behind me, Satan," and came and came home.

Pastor (revisiting flock)—I can't help noticing many absent faces with which I used to shake hands.

Ex-Passenger Agent for Northern Pacific Discusses Former Trouble. Unable to Work for Six Years.

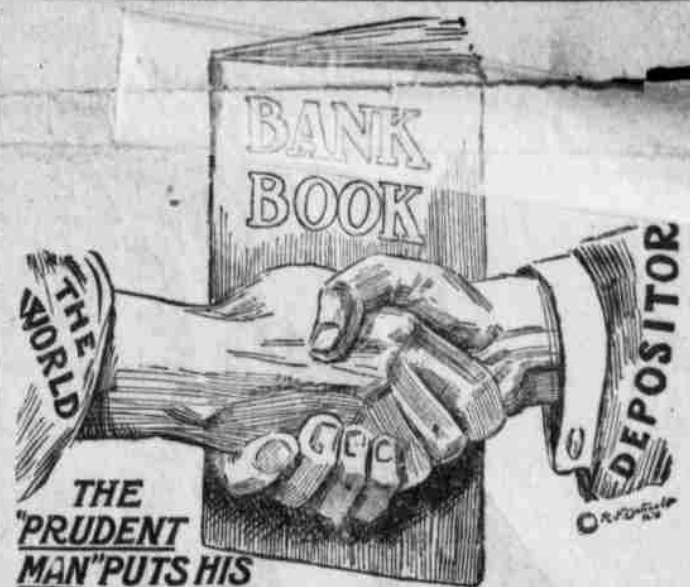

Nearly everybody in Knoxville, especially railroad people, know Captain F. S. Patty, for twelve years district passenger agent for the Northern Pacific railroad, with local offices in Chattanooga and general offices in St. Paul, Minn. On account of generally failing health Captain Patty was forced to discontinue active work and for the past few years has been making his home in Knoxville, where he numbers his friends by his acquaintances. He is a kind, genial gentleman of the old school and is loved by all who know him. The following interesting statement was made by him in person the Tanlac representative:

"I am 69 years old and always enjoyed good health until about six years ago, when I suffered a nervous breakdown and my general health gradually failed me. My principal trouble was indigestion and catarrh, but my whole system seemed to be out of shape. My condition finally got so bad I couldn't sleep at night and always after eating I would suffer from indigestion and heart burn so that I felt just like there was a coal of fire in my stomach. My hearing and vision were also affected. I consulted several doctors here in Knoxville and other cities and they helped me considerably and I finally got so I could go around, but somehow I just couldn't feel right and could not sleep at night, which made me awfully nervous and nothing I would eat seemed to agree with me.

"I began reading about Tanlac when you first came here, but did not decide to try the medicine until I talked with a friend of mine who had actually used it. He said it was the best thing he had ever taken, and that was sufficient proof for me.

"I have just finished the first bottle and came here this morning not only to buy the second bottle but to tell you just what it has done for me. I began enjoying my meals from the first few drops. My nervousness is gone and I can sleep like a child and always wake up in the morning ready for breakfast and feeling refreshed. I am very fond of onions, but was almost afraid to eat them, because they always disagreed with me so; I could taste them for hours afterward. I ate one for dinner the other day and it agreed with me perfectly and I felt no bad after-effects whatever. I tell you, I am beginning to feel like a new man and am always going to keep this Tanlac on hand. It has done me more good than anything else in the medicine line I have ever taken. I certainly do recommend it to my friends. It is really remarkable."
